

I urge you to listen carefully to what the NAB lobbyist are saying so that you will be able to weed through their deception of limiting competition. History shows over and over when a new idea is presented in our capitalist market, the old, comfortable, fat cat gets irritated and tries to sit on the new idea. Please, do not allow this to be, make the NAB cat work for it's listeners the way XM does: with hard health competitive work! Thank you!